Welcome Reception

Teresa McKeeman, President of NACREC, invites you to join her for the President's Reception at the Stuhr Museum on Wednesday evening. The exhibit will be "Painting the Legacy", by Todd Williams, which represents each county in Nebraska, through his art work. This exhibit is in celebration of Nebraska's Sesquicentennial Event. The Grand Island Visitors Bureau is sponsoring our limousine ride to and from the Stuhr Museum, which will begin loading at 5:30 p.m. at the motel lobby entrance. The reception and cash bar is being catered by the Chocolate Bar. Past NACREC officials have also been invited to join us for the reception.

THANK YOU TO ALL OF OUR SPONSORS FOR

AMY DIX

"A breath of fresh air, Amy inspires others through her positive outlook on life!"

Amy Dix, a National Speaker, Best-Selling Author, and Entrepreneur inspires others to live life on a different level, rooted in positivity and pure happiness. After her mother was diagnosed with terminal brain cancer, what transpired next left others in awe, moved, and in search of how they too can live a life of positivity. This single journey led Amy to study positivity and the impact it has on your life. Amy's e-book, "Wear Pink Lipstick: How to Be Positive and Stay Strong in Life's Most Difficult Times" has been downloaded in 3 different countries and has impacted hundreds to live their most fulfilling life yet! Her upcoming book, "SEVEN MORE DAYS: A Simple, Positive, More Authentic Way of Living". She now brings this message to the stage, creating a gripping experience of emotion, catapulting happiness, and challenging the chaos in today's world.
