

Nebraska Association of County Officials Legislative Report

January 15, 2010

Legislature Convenes on January 6, 2010

The 101st Legislature, Second Session convened last week for a “short” 60-day session. Bills that were not advanced or killed in 2009 were carried over to the 2010 session. By the end of the seventh day, 288 new bills and constitutional amendments had been introduced. More than 500 bills carried over from last year.

Wind energy, road funding and the state budget are issues that will likely affect county government this year. Appropriations Committee Chair Lavon Heidemann suggested to the body that consideration of bills with fiscal notes should occur earlier in the process this year due to reports of reduced revenue subsequent to this fall’s budget-cutting special session. Typically bills with a fiscal impact are advanced through the first two rounds of debate and held for final consideration until the budget is developed. He noted that under calculations using certain global percentages, rather than specific Nebraska projections, the state could face shortfalls approaching $1 billion next year.

In light of this, during the first three days of debate, several carryover bills with a fiscal impact failed to advance or were withdrawn. One of these bills, LB 544, would have required the Secretary of State to develop guidelines for election workers.

Another election bill LB 325, which addresses the use of provisional ballots when a voter moves within his or her precinct, was advanced to the second round of debate but will be amended.

These bills, as well as the calendar, daily agenda, hearing schedules, and more can be viewed on the Legislature’s website at www.nebraskalegislature.gov. A BillTracker link located under the For Citizens tab enables users to sign up to receive regular email updates on up to 15 bills. Second NACO Legislative Committee Meeting Set for January 22

NACO’s Legislative Committee met on Jan. 15 and will meet again on Jan. 22 to review and take positions on 2010 legislation and address carryover legislation, if necessary. The meeting will begin at 9:30 a.m. at the Nebraska State Education Association (NSEA) Building (605 S. 14th Street) in Lincoln. The NSEA Building is located directly north of the NACO office.

All county officials are invited to attend these meetings. Because lunch will be provided, please notify the NACO office at (402)434-5660 or leslie@nacone.org if you plan to attend. Parking is not permitted behind the NSEA Building and parking behind the NACO office is very limited. Because the Legislature is in session on Jan. 22, parking around the Capitol may be limited. Parking is available at the Cornhusker Hotel.

After brief introductory remarks, affiliate groups will meet for discussion of bills pertinent to their membership. After the groups have met, the NACO Legislative Committee will convene as a whole to review and take positions on the entire list of bills. All county officials are encouraged to attend or discuss areas of concern with their NACO Board representative prior to the meeting.
