1. “What is your current mindset?” “Is a positive mindset part of your leadership foundation?”
2. “What are two or three things on your to do list that you just haven’t gotten around to doing?” “How might it change your life, or someone else’s, if you just got them done?”
3. “Do you find yourself seeking full consensus in decision making?” “How might this be interfering with your ability to make maximum progress?”
4. “Have you given your very best today, this week, this month?” “Where can you see opportunity for personal improvement by given more?”
“Reflect, Review, and Commit”

For complete list see Sect. 3 Pages 101,115,126 & Sect. 4 Page 146

1. “When you think about your life, who’s been an exceptional leader who you’ve had the opportunity to work with? What made the leader exceptional?”

2. “In being honest with yourself, is there a current mistake that you’ve ignored or are currently ignoring that needs your attention? How might things look different if you address this?”

3. “Think about a specific role you have in your organization, family or community. As you consider the impression you’re making and the legacy you’re leaving, what’s something you could be more intentional about, something that could create a more positive impression?”

4. “Do you have a structured, consistent process for obtaining feedback? Take a moment to consider someone who might be able to provide you with some important feedback, and lay out a plan for how you intend to go about getting and implementing that important information,”
