

Enroll now for 2021! Nebraska Association of County Officials

Institute of Excellence

The NACO Institute of Excellence is designed to develop and enhance the leadership skills and abilities of Nebraska's county officials.

Developed in partnership with Nebraska Extension, the program allows learners to explore adaptive work concepts, develop problem solving and decision making skills pertinent to county leadership roles and gain new perspectives through networking.

2021 Schedule

March 4 — online

May 13 — online

July 8 — Lincoln*
July 22 — Kearney*

September 9 — Lincoln*
September 23 — Kearney*

December 7 — Kearney, in conjunction with the
NACO Annual Meeting

\ In-person sessions may be moved online based on current DHMs*

Topics to be explored:

- Effective meeting management
- Gallup StrengthsFinder
- Leading with empathy
- Nebraska population and economic trends
- Legislative communication
- Conflict management
- Leadership transition
- Inclusivity
- Networking with peers from across the state

Enroll now for the 2021 Institute of Excellence.

Cost: $250

Registration fees cover course materials, access to Canvas Catalog and lunch during in-person sessions.

Enroll online at:

go.unl.edu/nacoioe

Enroll by February 19, 2021.

For more information, contact:

Candace Meredith, candace.meredith@nebraskacounties.org, 402.434.5660 Ext. 223 or Jordan Rasmussen, jordan.rasmussen@unl.edu, 402.719.5230

A partnership of:

